

YOUNG CHERRY FESTIVAL.

FANTASTIC WEEKEND.

4 - 6th December 2010

Welcome, won't you join us for the Cherry Festival?

A fun time we always have at Young, so we are going to do it again. Young comes alive in late November to early December each year when the cornucopia of the district's stone fruit first comes into harvest. Well known for it's abundance of cherries, Young celebrates with the annual Cherry Festival, a traditional country event of great merriment and cheer, which is the highlight of the stone fruit season.

4th December. Depart depot 6.30am bound for Young, having morning tea and lunch will be on your own. A stop will be made at the Bradman Museum - Cootamundra. Arrive into Young, afternoon just in time to walk down the street to watch the parade. You may wish to walk up to the park this evening to watch the bands etc.

Federation Motor Inn is an outstanding motel, superb large rooms, very well appointed, and only 3 mins from town, with fantastic country hospitality. 02 6382 5644.

Please note—Breakfast & Dinner will be at the RSL, which is across the road from the motel LD.

5th December. After breakfast this day will be a fun day. Lunch is going to be a total surprise for everyone, and a day for everyone to enjoy. During the afternoon we visit JD's jam factory before we return to the motel for dinner at the RSL. BLD

6th December. It is goodbye to Young, but before we do, lets purchase some cherries. Arrive Nowra late in the afternoon. B. Lunch on your own.
